Question #1

One of the primary goals of the Office of the Attorney General is for our deputies to work collaboratively with others. Three areas providing opportunities for such collaboration are working in a team assignment, developing and sharing an expertise with others on a regular basis, and taking over an already assigned case at a late date because of unanticipated circumstances. Please address one of the three areas mentioned above and discuss the details of your involvement, including how your efforts contributed toward a successful litigation result.

Question #2

Please describe a court of appeal or Supreme Court decision that was decided in the last 10 years that you believe has or will have a significant effect on your areas of legal practice. Please specifically describe the decision; why you believe that it is important; and how that decision has affected practice within the Attorney General's Office.

Incumbents in the Deputy Attorney General IV classification are expected to be "experts in a broad or specialized area of the law."
