About this Guide

This guide is designed as a reference manual to assist individuals responsible for submitting the Child Abuse Investigative Report to the Department of Justice (DOJ).

The Attorney General’s Child Protection Program (CPP) has prepared this guide to:

- Explain and define statutory requirements and responsibilities.
- Explain how to obtain child abuse information from DOJ.
- Assist agencies in complying with reporting requirements.

The Appendix contains forms used to request and report information; abbreviations, acronyms, and definitions; and a simplified chart showing how the process works.

Further information is available on the Attorney General website at:

INTRODUCTION

The Child Abuse Central Index (Index) is a tool for state and local agencies to help protect the health and safety of California's children. The Index was created by the Legislature in 1965, and is defined in Penal Code (PC) sections 11164 through 11174.31. These statutes are referred to as the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act (CANRA).

The Index reflects reports of investigations completed by child protection agencies, and is used to aid with investigations and prosecutions. Information from the Index is also provided to agencies to help screen applicants for licensing or employment in childcare facilities and foster homes, to aid in background checks for child placement and adoptions, as well as peace officer pre-employment checks.

The CPP administers the Index by processing information extracted from Child Abuse Investigation Report (Form SS 8583). The CPP updates information to, and disseminates information from, the Index to authorized agencies.

As a child protective agency investigator, you may contact the CPP to determine if another agency has submitted a report with information relating to suspects and/or victims in your current investigation. Likewise, child abuse investigators from other agencies may need information you have submitted. Therefore, the reports you submit are vitally important throughout California.

The CPP disseminates Index information, including notices of new child abuse investigation reports involving the same reported suspects and/or victims.

Information on file in the Index includes:

- Names and personal descriptors of the suspects and victims;
- Reporting agency that investigated the incident;
- The name and/or number assigned to the case by the investigating agency;
- Type(s) of abuse investigated; and
- The findings of an investigation for the incident, which are either substantiated or inconclusive. (See 11165.12 PC)

Each reporting agency is required by law to forward to the DOJ a summary of every child abuse incident it investigates, unless the incident is determined to be unfounded or of general neglect. Each reporting agency is responsible for the accuracy, completeness and retention of the investigative file that substantiates a report submitted to the DOJ.
11169 PC mandates reporting child abuse to the DOJ.

Specifically, 11169 PC states “An agency specified in 11165.9 PC shall forward to the DOJ a report in writing of every case it investigates of known or suspected child abuse or severe neglect.”

Child abuse investigators who work for police and sheriff’s departments, county welfare departments, and county probation departments must report to the DOJ all investigated cases of child abuse:

1) determined not to be unfounded, and
2) mandated by law to be reported (Refer to “What to Report” on page 9).

Reporting to DOJ is done once your investigation is complete.

The DOJ has prepared standardized forms for the reporting of child abuse. To help ensure the accuracy and completeness of your reports, the following is an explanation of each section of the Child Abuse Investigation Report (Form SS 8583):

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

- For reporting to the DOJ, use current Form SS 8583 only.

- To allow complete reporting to DOJ, mark “UK” in any field for which information is unknown or not available.
- Incomplete forms submitted to DOJ may be returned for correction. Ensure accurate and timely resubmission of forms returned to your agency.
- If you have any questions about completing the Form SS 8583, please contact the DOJ at (916) 227-3285.

“Active Investigation” per DOJ regulations Title 11 California Administrative Code, section 901(a) means the activities of an agency in response to a report of known or suspected child abuse. For purposes of reporting information to the Child Abuse Central Index, suspected abuse; Active Investigation means the activities of an agency in response to a report of known or suspected child abuse. For purposes of reporting information to the Child Abuse Central Index, suspected abuse; conducting interview of the victim(s) and any known suspect(s) and witness(es); gathering and preserving evidence: determining whether the incident is substantiated, inconclusive, or unfounded; and preparing a report that will be retained in the files of the investigating agency.

If you have not contacted the suspect

This does not apply if you were unable to locate the suspect or another agency (i.e. law enforcement) has asked you not to notify the suspect. Please use the Comment field to identify the reason suspect was not contacted.
WHEN TO REPORT

Send Form SS 8583 to DOJ after;

a) you’ve made investigative contacts,

b) determined that the child abuse report was not unfounded,

c) confirmed that the suspected abuse or neglect is reportable to the DOJ as stipulated in previously mentioned statutes,

d) and completed the investigation.

11166(j) PC requires the cross-reporting by phone immediately, and by mail within 36 hours of receiving a report of suspected child abuse from a mandated reporter or from a citizen. You may use either Forms SS 8572 or SS 8583 to cross-report.

The 36-hour cross-reporting requirement does not apply to DOJ reporting requirements. For DOJ reporting purposes, you must submit the required Form SS 8583 once you have completed your investigation.

WHERE TO SEND THE REPORT

Mail the completed, original Form SS 8583 to:

Department of Justice
Bureau of Criminal Information and Analysis
Child Protection Program
P.O. Box 903387
Sacramento, CA 94203-3870
Sections 11170 PC and 11169 PC govern the retention of child abuse reports in the Index and affect the retention of reports by local investigative agencies.

1) Agency Retention Requirements

11169(c) PC establishes a basic requirement for agency retention of information.

“Agencies shall retain child abuse or neglect investigative reports that result in a report filed with the DOJ for the same period of time that the information is required to be maintained on the Index… Nothing in this section precludes an agency from retaining the reports for a longer period of time if required by law.”

2) DOJ Retention Requirements

11170(a)(3) PC allows for a 10 year purge for Inconclusive Reports.

“The Department of Justice shall delete unsubstantiated or inconclusive child abuse investigation reports from the Child Abuse Central Index after ten years….”

This is true only if the suspect of a report is not linked to a subsequent report. When a suspect of an Index report is linked to a subsequent report, the ten years commence from the date of receipt of the most recent report. (Originating agency will be notified via mail, by DOJ, when this occurs.)

There is no statutory or regulatory authority for the DOJ to purge information from the Index relating to a child abuse investigation if the finding of that investigation was substantiated. Therefore, investigating agencies must maintain their investigative files of substantiated child abuse investigations permanently.
INQUIRIES TO THE INDEX

11170 PC governs access to Index information.

The Index contains pertinent information from investigated reports of suspected child abuse and offers information not found in the state criminal history system that are derived from arrest and conviction data.

Information relayed by us is intended to direct you to information held by other agencies. We do not conduct investigations and do not have complete investigative files. We are a pointer system to the agency with the investigative file.

HOW TO ACCESS INFORMATION

There are three ways to request Index information. Authorized agencies may access Index information via fax, teletype, or US mail.

1. Fax Inquiries
   A. Submitting Your Request:

   B. Responses To Your Request
      Searches resulting in a no match, and those possible matches not requiring confirmation, will generate a reply within two hours. Replies on inquiries requiring confirmation may be delayed up to 30 thirty days while DOJ contacts the reporting agency to confirm the availability and accuracy of the original report.
C. Obtaining The Form

The Form BCIA 4084 can be faxed to your agency or you may request an electronic copy. Please contact DOJ/CPP with your electronic mailing address.

Definition of Terms

Active Investigation - the activities of an agency in response to a report of known or suspected child abuse. For purposes of reporting information to the Child Abuse Central Index, the activities shall include, at a minimum: assessing the nature and seriousness of the known or suspected abuse; conducting interviews of the victim(s) and any known suspect(s) and witness(es); gathering and preserving evidence; determining whether the incident is substantiated, inconclusive, or unfounded; and preparing a report that will be retained in the files of the investigating agency.

Automated Child Abuse System (ACAS) - the current system used by DOJ to electronically store reports of child abuse incidents submitted by investigating agencies. Also known as the Index and CACI.

Child - person who was a victim under the age of 18 at the time of the alleged abuse.

Child Abuse - is the same term as defined in Penal Code section 11165.6, which states the term "child abuse or neglect" includes physical injury inflicted by other than accidental means upon a child by another person, sexual abuse as defined in Section 11165.1, neglect as defined in Section 11165.2, the willful harming or injuring of a child or the endangering of the person or health of a child, as defined in Section 11165.3, and unlawful corporal punishment or injury as defined in Section 11165.4. "Child abuse or neglect" does not include a mutual affray between minors. "Child abuse or neglect" does not include an injury caused by reasonable and necessary force used by a peace officer acting within the course and scope of his or her employment as a peace officer.

Child Abuse Central Index - also known as CACI, Index, and ACAS.

Child Protective Agency (CPA) - is the investigating agency, which includes a police department, a sheriff’s department, a county welfare department, or a county probation department.

Child Protective Agency Investigator - is a person employed by a child abuse investigative agency who is responsible for inquiring into the details of a report of suspected child abuse. (NOTE: Throughout this guide the use of the term “investigator” shall mean a child abuse agency investigator.)

Child Protection Program - also known as CPP, is the unit within the DOJ responsible for the maintenance of the Index.

CLETS - California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System.

Confirmation - the DOJ process of contacting the agency that submitted the report to confirm that the investigative file is still available and is not unfounded.

DOJ - Department of Justice.

General Neglect - is the same term as used in Penal Code section 11165.2(b) means the negligent failure of a person having the care or custody of a child to provide adequate food, clothing, shelter, medical aer, or supervision where no physical injury to the child has occurred. This is not reportable to DOJ.

Inconclusive Report - is the same term as defined in Penal Code section 11165.12(c). This category was originally termed “unsubstantiated report” and was renamed by Chapter 842 of the Statutes of 1997 and became effective January 1, 1998. Inconclusive as defined means a report that is determined by the investigator who conducted the investigation not to be unfounded, but the findings are inconclusive and there is insufficient evidence to determine whether child abuse or neglect, as defined in Section 11165.6, has occurred.

The match is considered possible because it has not been confirmed absolutely with positive matching processes such as a fingerprint comparison.

Report - an entry in ACAS reporting the investigation of a suspected incident of child abuse. All mandatory information as specified in Title 11, section 903 of the California Code of Regulations must be included for the report to be entered into ACAS.

Severe Neglect - is the same term as used in Penal Code section 11165.2, which states; the negligent failure of a person having the care or custody of a child to protect the child from severe malnutrition or medically diagnosed non-organic failure to thrive. "Severe neglect" also means those situations of neglect where any person having the care or custody of a child willfully causes or permits the person or health of the child to be placed in a situation such that his or her person or health is endangered, as proscribed by Section 11165.3, including the intentional failure to provide adequate food, clothing, shelter, or medical care.

Submitting Agency - the agency that forwarded the completed report on which an ACAS entry is based.

Substantiated - an investigator has determined based upon evidence that makes it more likely than not that child abuse or neglect, as defined, occurred. Definition in Penal Code section 11165.12 (b), amended on January 1, 2005.

Suspect - a person who has been designated as a suspect in an agency’s child abuse investigation and subsequently reported as such to DOJ.
